

With man "one murder makes a villain—millions a hero: but God

William Lloyd Garrison

30-00

never replied to the letter nor gave me any means of knowing if he had received the other. It was not - to be sure very valuable but was perhaps as much so as things of the kind commonly are.
May I charge you with asking him about it.

Please to accept of the enclosed Pound as a small contribution to your expenses of travel and with Best & kindest regards to yourself, Mr. G. and your family and wishing you a pleasant and safe passage across the Atlantic and happy meeting with your family and friends and kind remembrances to all our Abolition friends I am my Dear Friend

Yours Truly

John Murray

I trust this will reach you - & if possible somewhere on, if not before Sunday first to remind you and G. T. of your promise & L. Hamiltons MSS think that the paragraph which appeared in the Argus & which I gave from the Steam :dend will prevent our Society in the mean time. Memorializing our Gov^t on the subject until we are fully assured that the evil complained of still exists.

By writing to the Foreign Office we might ascertain what has been done by Lord Aberdeen the late Foreign Secy - but even that would not inform us what the effect resulting has been - if any - that can only be ascertained from the opposite side.

When Remond was leaving this Country I sent after him to Liverpool and addressed to him at the Office of the Steam Packet a small collection of Seals and autographs of (what are commonly termed) eminent person - and a letter to himself requesting him to acknowledge the receipt of the Box and letter but - Mr Remond

Bowling Bay
30th Oct 1846

My Dear Friend

120

I had some expectation when I parted with you in Atlantic yesterday, that I would have gone through to Edinburgh last-Evening - & thus have had the pleasure of seeing you again there - but this being so near the end of the Month when Business requires me to be at home & other reasons prevented me. I hope you had a good Meeting last night & that we will see the fruit of all your labours in the entire Abolition of American Slavery.

In thinking over what I said to you yesterday of the change in regard to the imprisonment of coloured seamen - I rather